

The Wharton Undergraduate Finance Club is excited to invite you to a Fireside Chat and Q&A with Paul J. Taubman, Founder, Chairman and CEO of PJT Partners. The event will take place on Friday, December 3rd at 12 pm in JMHH G06 and will be moderated by Burcu Esmer, Senior Research Fellow at the Wharton Harris Family Alternative Investments Program. We are excited to discuss how Paul's time at UPenn led him to where he is today, his decision to spinoff now PJT Partners from the Blackstone Group in 2014, lessons learned throughout his career, his view of the future of finance, and overall advice to college us college students.

Please register here and add any questions for Paul here. Penn cards will be scanned at the door. Because of space limitations from COVID-19 restrictions, we will also be streaming the event on Zoom to maximize the number of people who can join us. The link will be shared at a later date.

Please find Paul's bio below:

Paul J. Taubman is the Founder, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of PJT Partners, a global advisory-focused investment bank. Since its founding in 2014, PJT Partners has become one of the fastest growing and most respected advisory firms.

Prior to founding PJT Partners, Mr. Taubman spent nearly 30 years at Morgan Stanley serving in a series of increasingly significant leadership positions including Co-President of Institutional Securities. Throughout his career, he has advised companies and Boards on many of the largest and most complex strategic transactions around the globe. Mr. Taubman serves in a leadership role on numerous philanthropic efforts including Board President of New York Cares, New York City's largest volunteer organization; Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory; Board Member of the Partnership for New York City; Advisory Council member at the Stanford Graduate School of Business; National Advisory Board member of Youth, Inc.; and Trustee of the Foundation for Empowering Citizens with Autism.

Mr. Taubman received a B.S. in Economics from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania and an M.B.A. from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.